

A Week in Review

God is the owner of everything; We are His managers.

Group Opener

Who shared the Gospel with you and how did they do it?

Study Questions

Read Matthew 5:13-16. How does this passage apply to bearing witness of Christ? What does it look like, practically speaking, to be the “salt” and “light” of the world?

We all have passions. What are you passionate about and why?

How passionate are you about your relationship with Jesus? How would others know?

When we have an amazing experience, we have no problem trying to get others to experience it too. What experience(s) have you had that you wish for others to have? How do you try to convince them?

God is passionate about people and saving them from the consequences of sin. How do you know this to be true? What passages come to mind that testify to God’s passion for people?

If God is passionate about seeking and saving the lost, so should His followers. How would you rate your level of concern for those who don’t know Jesus?

What keeps you from sharing your story/testimony or the Gospel with others?

How and with who will you share your story &/or the Gospel this week?

Group Announcements

Easter is coming and the invites cards are now available. Grab some, pray for those God would want you to invite, and then use the Easter cards to invite them to our services and egg hunts.
