

Date received by VRL:

Mission Trip Scholarship Request

A limited number of scholarships are available for people going on short-term mission trips in 2015. The individual must have a connection to Valley Real Life. Applications are typically reviewed a couple times a year. Applications can be submitted to the address below: attention Bobbi Condos. You may also type your information in a document and submit it that way as long as all questions are answered.

Your name _____ Date _____

Email _____ Phone _____

Name of mission trip/partner organization and explain briefly what they do. _____

Partner organization website and/or Facebook page: _____

Is this your first mission trip with this organization? If no, provide details on prior trip. _____

Have you gone on other mission trips? If yes, provide name & dates. _____

What lead you to select this particular trip/mission? _____

Dates of this mission trip: _____

Are you attending as an individual, with family or friends? _____

Describe your role for this trip, why you want to go and what you hope to gain from the experience.

What is your connection to Valley Real Life? _____

In what church-related ministries have you been involved? _____

Finances -

What is the cost of your mission trip? _____

What is your personal financial contribution to this trip/project? _____

What is your support raising strategy; how are you paying for your trip? _____

What is the deadline for full payment of your trip? _____