

David: An Unlikely Hero

Dave Christensen

---

Bored to Death

A Week in Review

The journey from where we are to where we need to be makes us who we are.

Group Opener

Share one mountain-top experience of your life.

Study Questions

Read 2 Samuel 11:14. What is noteworthy from these four verses and why?

At a time when David should have been off to war, he stayed home. His idleness led to sinfulness. When do you find yourself most vulnerable to sin?

Where in your life are you battling complacency? What do you think God wants you to do about it?

How can we guard ourselves against boredom?

Where might God be calling you to trust Him, live beyond yourself and invest in the eternal?

Depending on how long you have been a Christian you may have experienced boredom with church, prayer, and Bible reading. What do you think are the causes for boredom in these areas? How can these areas be kept fresh?

What steps will you take to beat boredom and contribute to God's Kingdom work?

Please take time to:

Pray: Ask the Lord for the faith to wait on Him and become who He want you to be.

Announce: Have a heavenly impact this Halloween, grab the candy cards in the lobby and attach them to king-size candy for your Trick-or-Treaters.

- DNA – Sunday, November 4 | 1:30-4:30pm @ VRL