Treasurers report: Hammond goes over the Villages accounts. Talked about the interest earned and that the Village is doing good. Taxes will be going out soon.

Guest: Jeremy Toyer lead pastor at Village Hope Church June 22nd family moving night at Groner park at 8:30, July 16-19th Home town kids camp will be from 6-8. Parma Day and backpacks for kids will now be lead by Village Hope Church Sep 22nd. Would like to change it to that day.

Josh Davis 114 E. Grove asked about the possibility of a tree being cut down.

Business: Representative from Michigan CLASS Richard Garay went over what Michigan CIASS is and can do for the Village of Parma. A resolution will be presented at the July board meeting to address the use of Michigan CLASS.

Planning Commission: Good turn out for the meeting. Survey questions were worked on and decided. A paper copy will be sent out and Survey Monkey will also be used.

Water/Sewer Report: A lot of going on right now. Cooper and Jenkins will be having a meeting before the July board meeting. DEQ has informed the Village that must raise sewer rates. There is a problem with some of the man holes. This will cause problems with the streets. All water pumps are online. Looking into water flow from water tower.
