

PART FIVE: LOVE BRIDGE

in a nutshell

AS WE WRAP UP...

Whenever I have the privilege and opportunity to put together a series, I become ambitious to a fault. Discussing how to have positive IMPACT on our culture & community can go in a 100 different directions which would result in us learning very little after 5 weeks.

The strongest idea that keeps bubbling to the top is that love cuts through. Individuals and churches who desire to answer the call to be “salt and light” will wear themselves out, plus look foolish and fake if we try to keep up with or copy our culture.

We can't. We shouldn't because it does not bring positive, effective, helpful impact. But sincere, selfless love is a powerful bridge that cuts through culture and will connect on every level.

PART FIVE: LOVE BRIDGE

in a nutshell

AS WE WRAP UP...

Whenever I have the privilege and opportunity to put together a series, I become ambitious to a fault. Discussing how to have positive IMPACT on our culture & community can go in a 100 different directions which would result in us learning very little after 5 weeks.

The strongest idea that keeps bubbling to the top is that love cuts through. Individuals and churches who desire to answer the call to be “salt and light” will wear themselves out, plus look foolish and fake if we try to keep up with or copy our culture.

We can't. We shouldn't because it does not bring positive, effective, helpful impact. But sincere, selfless love is a powerful bridge that cuts through culture and will connect on every level.

impact

LOVE BRIDGE

TOBY NEWNUM MAY 13&14, 2017
MOTHER'S DAY WEEKEND

vision

TEACHING NOTES

1SAMUEL25.1-3

There was a very rich man living in Maon. He had 3000 sheep and 1000 goats. That man was in Carmel taking care of some business. He went there to cut the wool from his sheep. This man's name was Nabal. He was from Caleb's family. Nabal's wife was named Abigail. She was a wise and beautiful woman, but Nabal was a mean and cruel man.

Lined writing area with a large pink flower watermark.

impact

LOVE BRIDGE

TOBY NEWNUM MAY 13&14, 2017
MOTHER'S DAY WEEKEND

vision

TEACHING NOTES

1SAMUEL25.1-3

There was a very rich man living in Maon. He had 3000 sheep and 1000 goats. That man was in Carmel taking care of some business. He went there to cut the wool from his sheep. This man's name was Nabal. He was from Caleb's family. Nabal's wife was named Abigail. She was a wise and beautiful woman, but Nabal was a mean and cruel man.

Lined writing area with a large pink flower watermark.