

impact

The PERFECT Fit

TOBY NEWNUM MAY 6&7, 2017

JOHN11.5-7&17

Although Jesus was very fond of Martha, Mary, and Lazarus, He stayed where he was for the next two days and made no move to go to them.

Finally, after the two days, he said to his disciples, "Let's go to Judea." When they arrived at Bethany, they were told that Lazarus had already been in his tomb for four days.

1. _____ IT
2. _____ IT
3. _____ IT

But some said, "This man healed a blind man. Couldn't he have kept Lazarus from dying?" Jesus was still angry as he arrived at the tomb, a cave with a stone rolled across its entrance. "Roll the stone aside," Jesus told them. But Martha protested, "Lord, he has been dead for four days. The smell will be terrible." Jesus responded, "Didn't I tell you that you would see God's glory if you believe?" So they rolled the stone aside. Then Jesus looked up to heaven and said, "Father, thank you for hearing me. You always hear me, but I said it out loud for the sake of all these people standing here, so that they will believe you sent me." Then Jesus shouted, "Lazarus, come out!" And the dead man came out, his hands and feet bound in graveclothes, his face wrapped in a headcloth. Jesus told them, "Unwrap him and let him go!" Many of the people believed in Jesus when they saw this happen.

vision
TEACHING NOTES

impact

The PERFECT Fit

TOBY NEWNUM MAY 6&7, 2017

JOHN11.5-7&17

Although Jesus was very fond of Martha, Mary, and Lazarus, He stayed where he was for the next two days and made no move to go to them.

Finally, after the two days, he said to his disciples, "Let's go to Judea." When they arrived at Bethany, they were told that Lazarus had already been in his tomb for four days.

1. _____ IT
2. _____ IT
3. _____ IT

But some said, "This man healed a blind man. Couldn't he have kept Lazarus from dying?" Jesus was still angry as he arrived at the tomb, a cave with a stone rolled across its entrance. "Roll the stone aside," Jesus told them. But Martha protested, "Lord, he has been dead for four days. The smell will be terrible." Jesus responded, "Didn't I tell you that you would see God's glory if you believe?" So they rolled the stone aside. Then Jesus looked up to heaven and said, "Father, thank you for hearing me. You always hear me, but I said it out loud for the sake of all these people standing here, so that they will believe you sent me." Then Jesus shouted, "Lazarus, come out!" And the dead man came out, his hands and feet bound in graveclothes, his face wrapped in a headcloth. Jesus told them, "Unwrap him and let him go!" Many of the people believed in Jesus when they saw this happen.

vision
TEACHING NOTES

PART FOUR: THE PERFECT FIT

in a nutshell

ANGRY JESUS

I know this story has been told and preached many times, but one of the coolest things about the Bible is, how deep it goes. Keep digging. There's ALWAYS more.

In this case I found Jesus' anger to be a really interesting (and helpful) part of the story to focus upon. The NIV version reads that He was "deeply moved", but other versions say "angry".

His anger seems to come from being misunderstood by Mary, Martha, His disciples and the onlookers. It was a situation where Jesus did not "perform" as the culture thought He should have and they were being critical. This brings Him anger. Think about it.

In fact, what Jesus did resulted in Lazarus coming back to life, many skeptics becoming believers and God being glorified...not too shabby. Even though it must have been hard to see His friends so sad and experience such a feeling of loss and to be so misunderstood, He still had a much, much better plan and He worked the plan.

Maybe that's helpful to know – that we should never doubt whether God knows what He is doing...He does. He promises to make good come from bad when we are faithful and it even seems to make Him angry when we don't learn to trust Him and put it into practice.

PART FOUR: THE PERFECT FIT

in a nutshell

ANGRY JESUS

I know this story has been told and preached many times, but one of the coolest things about the Bible is, how deep it goes. Keep digging. There's ALWAYS more.

In this case I found Jesus' anger to be a really interesting (and helpful) part of the story to focus upon. The NIV version reads that He was "deeply moved", but other versions say "angry".

His anger seems to come from being misunderstood by Mary, Martha, His disciples and the onlookers. It was a situation where Jesus did not "perform" as the culture thought He should have and they were being critical. This brings Him anger. Think about it.

In fact, what Jesus did resulted in Lazarus coming back to life, many skeptics becoming believers and God being glorified...not too shabby. Even though it must have been hard to see His friends so sad and experience such a feeling of loss and to be so misunderstood, He still had a much, much better plan and He worked the plan.

Maybe that's helpful to know – that we should never doubt whether God knows what He is doing...He does. He promises to make good come from bad when we are faithful and it even seems to make Him angry when we don't learn to trust Him and put it into practice.