An Appetite for known

- Feed it and it grows

The more friends, fans and followers you have... the more you want.

John the Baptist

Mark 1:4

Mark 1:15

Mark 1:19-29

John 3:27- To this John replied, "A person can receive only what is given them from heaven.

Remember who it's _____ and who it's _____.

Our _____ is for His _____.

We can receive only what is given us from heaven.

You killed it!

BLANKS: FROM, FOR, KNOWN, RENOWN

vision TEACHING NOTES

PART THREE: KNOWN SURVIVOR

1. HONESTLY CONSIDER WHO'S APPROVAL IS MOST IMPORTANT TO YOU

When you shop for clothes, choose a hairstyle, purchase a car or truck, who do you consider? When you post or tweet, who are the friends or followers you picture viewing your message. Since we have been taping teachings and posting them on line for people to watch, I find myself occasionally checking to see how many hits there have been. Okay, I confessed, now it's your turn. Try this on and face it first, then we'll start working on this part of "KILLIN' IT".

2. RECOGNIZE & EMBRACE THAT WANTING TO BE KNOWN IS AN INSATIABLE APPETITE & A TRAP

This helps. To intellectually, logically grasp that working to be more known and maintain "known-ness" is futile helps. At least it does for me. I don't want to waste my time being occupied with something that isn't real. I recognize and embrace that I cannot control whether I am known, how much I am known, whether it is growing or decreasing and it can be a big relief to realize that we can't control it and are not supposed to be greatly concerned about it. He releases us from the pressure and more importantly, the trap.

3. GIVE SOMEONE ENCOURAGEMENT THIS WEEK

Knowing that to be recognized and known feels good and is encouraging. And knowing that we are commanded to lift each other up and encourage them, let's do so. God is the One we should care about pleasing. He speaks His praise through us when we encourage each other.
