

Glory— magnificent, highest praise, radiance

Exodus 40:30

Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle.

Isaiah 6:3

And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory!"

Creation derives it's worth from His radiance

The designer's name on it adds value

Significance comes from glorifying God

1Cor. 6:19

Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God?

Isaiah 43:7

everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made."

Isaiah 48:11

For my own sake, for my own sake, I do it, for how should my name be profaned? My glory I will not give to another.

LECRAE

1. EVERY DAY GLORY Glory sounds like an ancient church word. Like a hymn or a verse from the King James Bible. Lecrae does a great job of describing a realistic view of what glory looks like in today's world. It is the VALUE & WORTH that God infuses into our lives when we open up and let Him into our every day thoughts, words, actions...our spirit. Our value is because of who's name is on us – the Designer.

2. EVERY DAY REFLECTION Reflection is outward. It has to be seen to be considered a reflection. When sunlight hits the moon the "moonlight" cuts through the dark. Everyone who is outdoors at night can see their shadow because of the reflection. They see the glow of the planet. What do the people in your home, your workplace or neighborhood see reflecting in you? How do they see it? How will they see it this week?

3. EVERY DAY REJECTION Most of us would not use the word rejection in our feelings about God. Even if we aren't "God-followers" per se, we wouldn't say we reject Him. Maybe we just haven't decided what we feel about Him. Others who do follow Him, have committed our lives to Him - certainly we wouldn't say we reject Him. But in the context of today's teaching there is truth in saying that if we don't purpose to reflect Him in our lives, by default we are neglecting Him. His glory is pouring out to fall upon all mankind and when we step into His light, reflection will happen. It can't be helped. But if we duck behind in the shadows and avoid His light...even in indecision - well, isn't that rejection?

4. EVERY DAY SALVATION To understand salvation, we first need to understand that we are lost or "not saved". Sounds churchy I know, but actually it is the best literal way to say it. Recognizing the amazing gift of salvation will motivate us to appreciate God so much that we want to open up and receive His glory and have it reflect in every part of our life. It's interesting that Lecrae, of all video teachers we have presented – the genuine hip hop street-cred persona is the one who delivers his message in such a rock-solid traditional way. I hope it has been helpful to you today.
