DON'T MISS OUT

You can easily see why we chose this video teaching. Pastor Todd tells the story of King David in such a fresh and inspiring way. But just as inspiring, really, is his personal story about how he ended up preaching at Elevation Church.

I'm sure you didn't miss the message that attuning our life to God through prayer, the Bible and His Spirit means He prompts us. Pastor Todd felt sure that he was to go get on a plane and fly to Elevation even though he had no ticket to get into the conference. He sought God. God prompted him. He was faithful and took action. A huge breakthrough took place.

I'm sure we won't find ourselves preaching in Charlotte anytime soon, but something just as significant could line up for us if we too would seek Him, listen and then act by faith. Pretty exciting. Inspiring. And what a shame to miss out.

What's really cool is that, to begin, it doesn't require some huge move. Got a Bible? A connection to YOUTUBE? A brain? (not trying to be offensive). We pray with our brain. We can hear the Bible taught and explained by the greatest teachers in the world on YOUTUBE. We can study it for ourselves. This gets it started. We either do or we don't. This is evident in Pastor Todd's story. He did it. For so many of us, our real potential never really surfaces because these "small" things are not in our life. God has so much for us to do. It's so rewarding and fulfilling. Start with the small, powerful things. Don't miss out.
