TEACHING NOTES

LIFECHURCH.TV

I found this teaching to be really encouraging and helpful. I hope you do too.

Life changes. Seasons come and go. Doors open and close. Recognizing purpose and acting upon it is one of the most fundamental things in life. It's crucial to our mission.

For me, one of the strongest points from Pastor Craig is to focus on the "little p" purpose(s) that we are called to every day. I agree that some are so busy seeking their big (Forrest Gump) life destiny, they can't see (or choose not to see) the really important immediate purpose that is right in front of them. The kids we raise, the coworkers we work with, the neighbor we see daily, the neighbors and families around us who could use some help and encouragement.

Today, tomorrow and every day, if we open our eyes, we will see continuous opportunities and purpose. It is almost always found in the the little things, the "little p", but has eternal significance.

TAKE IT WITH YOU...

1. THANK GOD THAT HE HAS PURPOSES FOR YOU
2. PRAY TO SEE THOSE PURPOSES
3. COMMIT TO FAITHFULLY FULFILL HIS PURPOSES
