Committed to using our team's creativity, innovation, and technology to reach people for the Gospel of Jesus Christ!

Personal Attention...

WAVE wants to ensure that the designs we deliver are installed properly and without alteration, our projects are designed to be installed by our team in coordination with your team!

We personally train your technical team on the operation of the equipment and oversee the commissioning process for opening weekend.

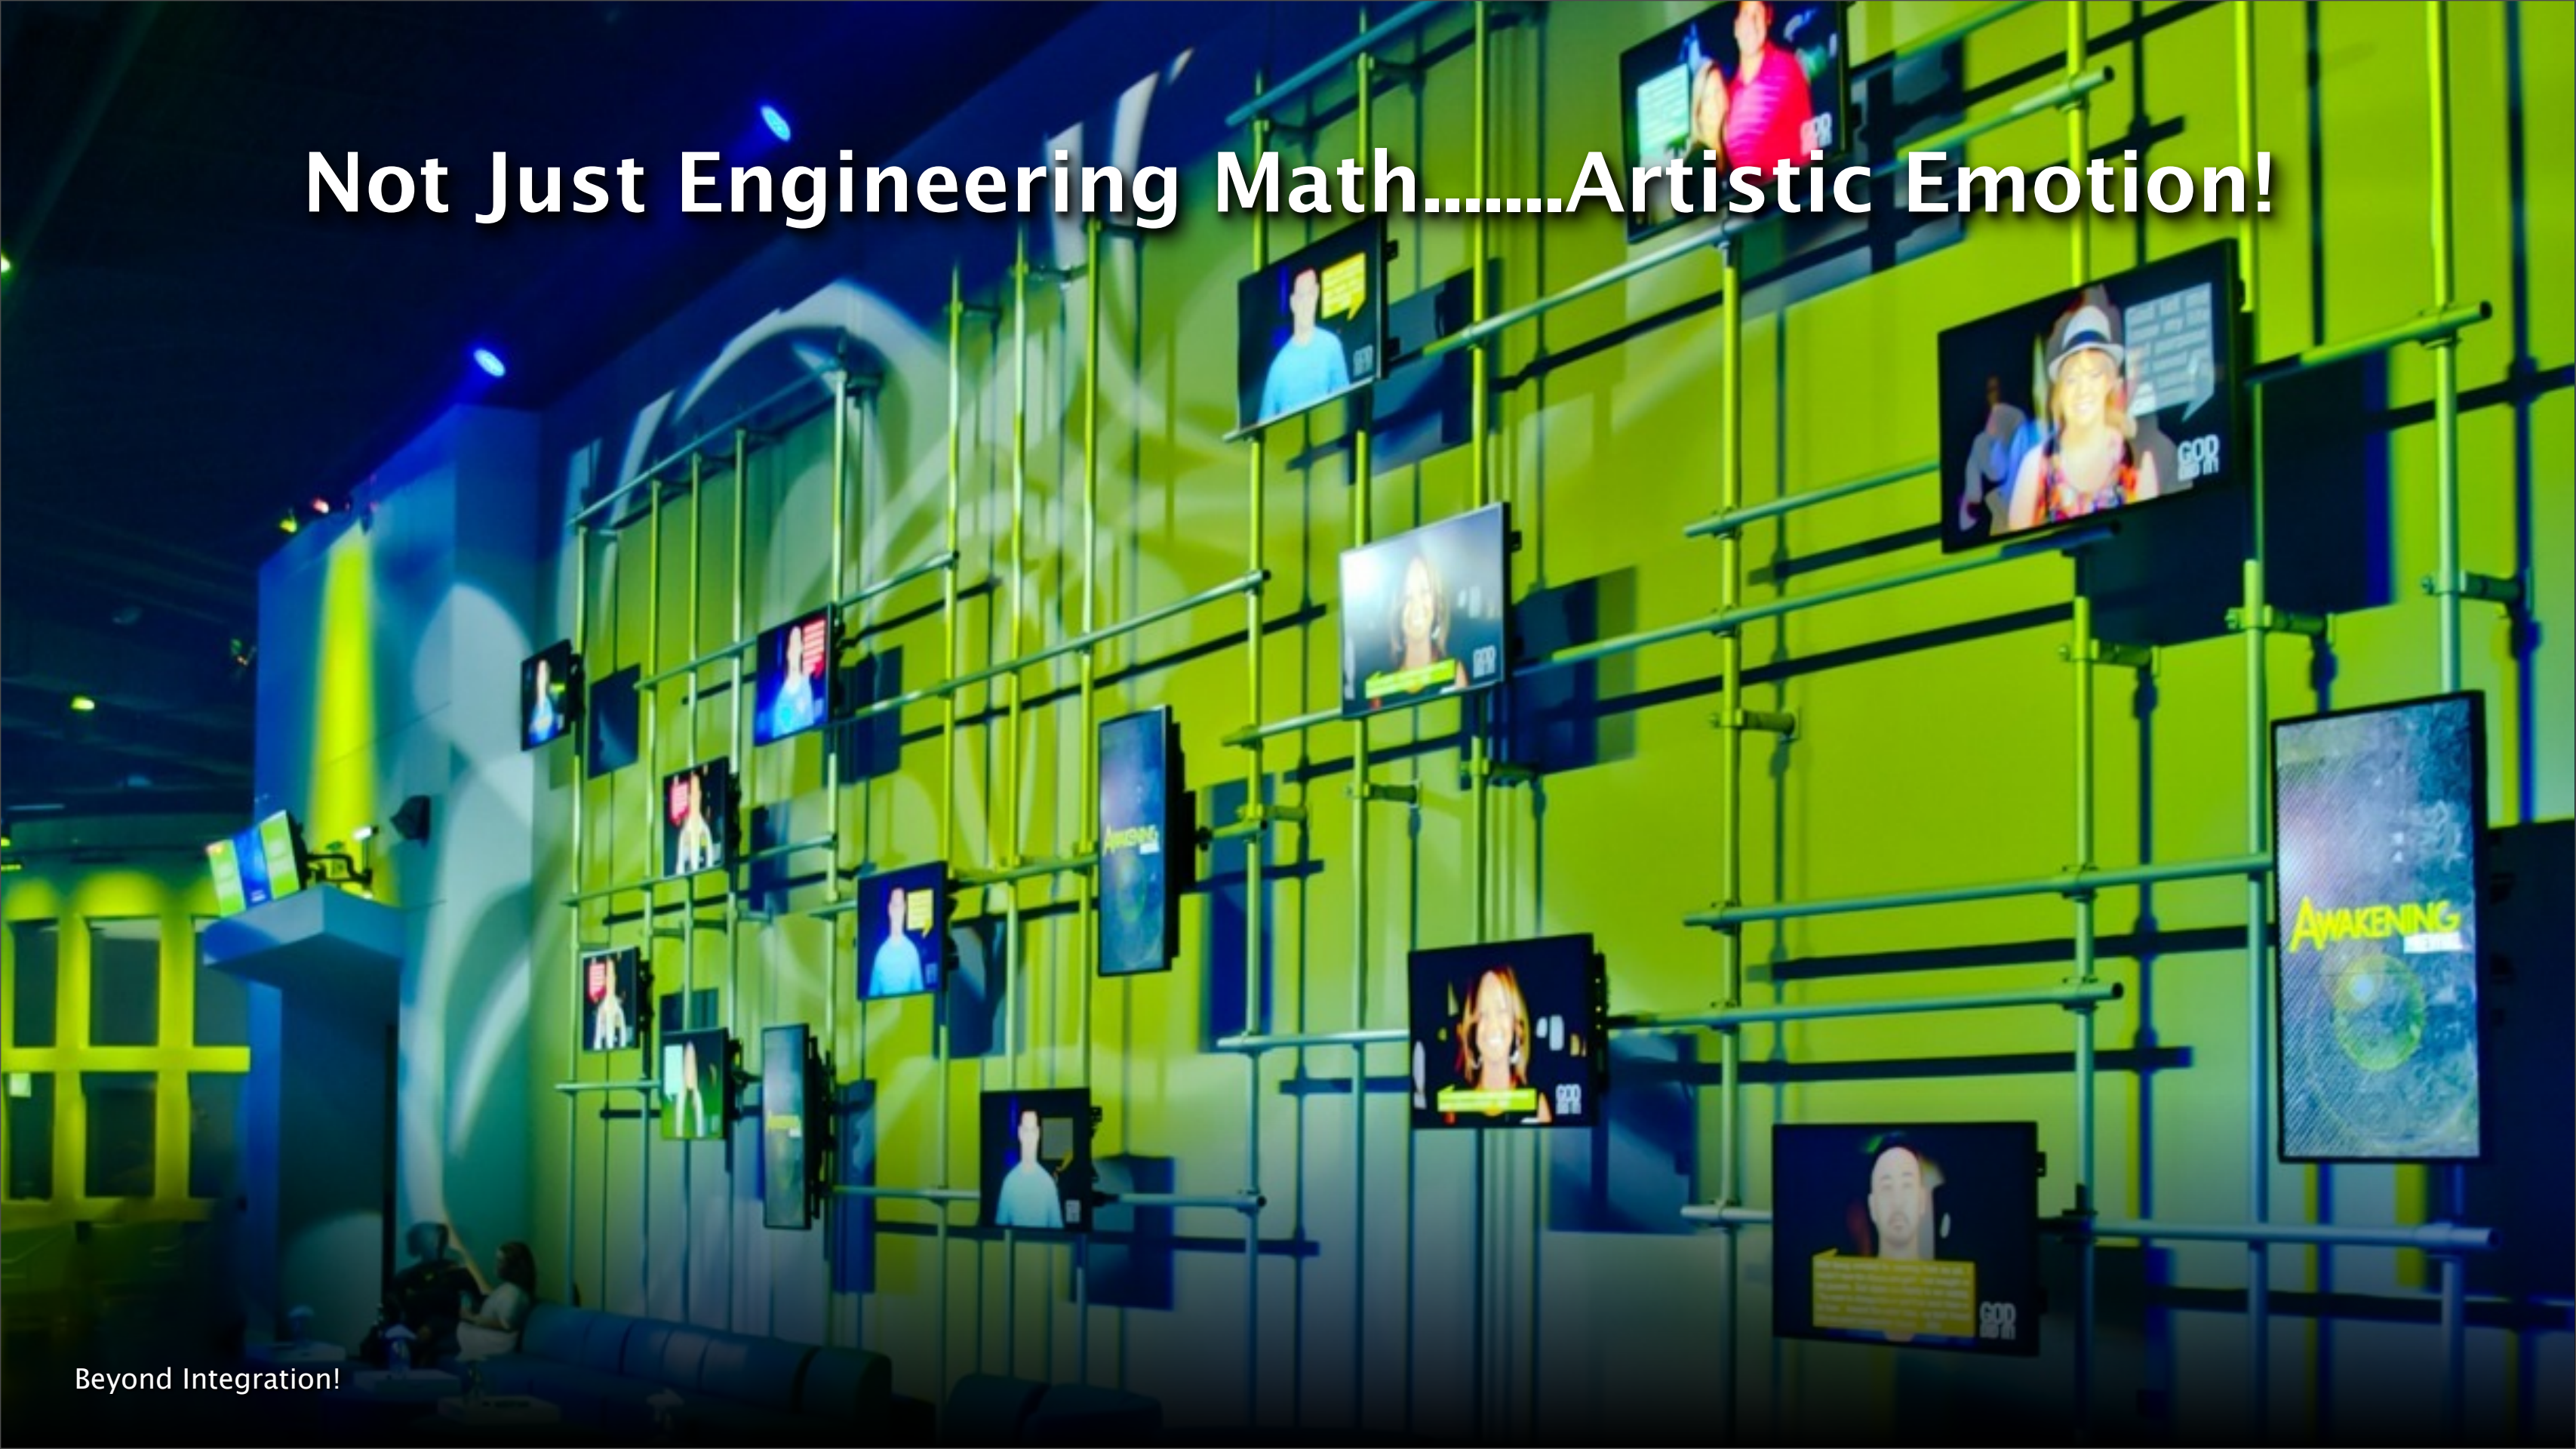

We define the parameters:

What are the top priorities? How will the technology fit into the architecture? Who will operate the technology? What are the expectations and the budget? And do they match?
