

WUMC Friendship Class (room 126 in the Education wing) –

The longest established adult class includes a community of folks who come together each Sunday morning to study and discuss topics/issues seeking answers while integrating the Wesleyan Quadrilateral variables of scripture, tradition, experience, and reason. The Friendship Class enjoys using the Faithlinks publications which feature current events and the United Methodist response. They are looking forward to a special series during Advent called “A Different Kind of Christmas”, which will begin on Dec. 27, 2016.

In addition to supporting the WUMC Sunday School, the Class is committed to supporting special projects/missions through monthly giving, for example, 3rd Grade Bibles each fall, Wesley Foundation, youth mission trips, Cunningham Home, Charleston High School Helping Hands, the Charleston Civic Association, EIU International Students, and others. Whether you’re coming to Wesley UMC for the first time, or you’ve been coming for a lifetime, you are welcome in the Friendship Class.
