SCHEDULING GREETERS

Send the new schedule two weeks before the beginning of the following month.

When scheduling greeters, make sure the folks who greet the first Sunday haven't greeted the second-to-last or last Sunday of the previous month. At times, this will be impossible, but try to avoid it when possible.

Move greeters around from month to month so they are greeting at different doors each month.

The NORTH door is the least entered, so it is fine to schedule just one person there.

Keep a schedule of ushers and hospitality hosts in the folder to avoid overlapping schedules. Also – try not to schedule choir members during choir season, or at least not on the Sundays the choir will be singing.

Email schedules to those whose email addresses you have; mail all others.
