JUNE 2017
Please note a few changes:

START & END TIME
- Each night – not just Sunday -
  VBS begins at 6:00 and ends at 7:30.

REGISTRATION
- All children (babies through those completing 6th grade) will enter through the Family Center to register.
- Registration will be the same as our Sunday Bible classes. Each child wears one name tag and the adult registering them gets the other.
- Parents will then take their children to the Auditorium to sit with their group for the opening session. Parents are welcome to stay for the opening session and adult class in the Auditorium.

CHILD PICKUP
- Children will not return to the Auditorium
- Babies through kindergarteners will be picked up in their classroom at 7:30.
- First – Sixth graders will be picked up in Faith Farm.

ADULTS
- Those not registering children will enter the Auditorium through the ramp door.
- Classes each night are as follows:
  - Sunday
    - Abel
    - John Corn
  - Monday
    - Noah
    - Bill Alsup
  - Tuesday
    - Gideon
    - Phillip Young Sr.
  - Wednesday
    - Rahab
    - Perry Henegar

FOOD & FELLOWSHIP AFTER VBS
- Instead of having a snack time, there will be a meal at 7:30 in the Family Center.
- Parents will be responsible for their children (and guests) during the meal.
- Those with little ones needing an early bedtime may choose to skip the meal.
- Sunday night everyone is to bring a finger food. All other nights the meal will be provided.

Mark your calendar to attend and bring a friend!

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

HALL OF FAITH - July 9-12 | 6:00-7:30 p.m.

VBS is a fun and exciting time at West Seventh! Children learn the Bible in creative ways and the many volunteers are making preparations for another great year!
Rachel Garrett

Rachel Elizabeth Foster Garrett, 97, retired employee of Pinkston Nursery School and resident of Golf Club Lane, died Monday, May 15, 2017 at NHC-Columbia.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday, May 18, at 10:30 a.m. at Oakes & Nichols Funeral Home with Mike Greene, Sherrie Mitchner, Mike Kesler and Jeremy Butt officiating. Burial followed in Pleasant Mount Cemetery.

Born April 28, 1920 in Parish Branch Hollow, Old Lynnville, Giles County, Tennessee, she was the youngest and only daughter of five children, to the late John Dew Foster and the late Lillie Mae Thurman Foster. On September 28, 1938, she married Robert Denham Garrett who preceded her in death August 11, 2001. Rachel and Robert both worked at Dixie Manufacturing and attended Old South Church of Christ, Highland Avenue Church of Christ and West Seventh Street Church of Christ.

Rachel will most be remembered from Bible classes at Highland Park Church of Christ and Alma Pinkston’s Day Care on 15th Street, where she loved teaching and being with children. She was a member of Maury Regional Hospital Auxiliary for 29 years and the Maury County Bird Watchers. She will also be remembered as a perfect mother-in-law.

Survivors include her two sons, Randy Denham (Linda Baker) Garrett of Franklin; Ray Foster (Linda Wallace) Garrett of Columbia; grandson, Robert “Caleb” (Rachel Brown) Garrett of Columbia; Luke Nathaniel (Amber Hinson) Garrett of Auburn, Alabama; nieces, Evelyn Winnette Foster Coston of Irving, Texas; and Mary Ellen (Ellis) Logan of Wetumpka, Alabama; and several nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by brothers, Willie Brown Foster, Albert Mason Foster, Raymond “Ellis” Foster, and Johnny Douglas Foster; nephew, William Sloan (JoAnn) Foster; and niece, June Foster Savage.

WEST SEVENTH PRAYER FOCUS FOR MAURY COUNTY

Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven

June 2017--Arts and Entertainment
- Pray that public preference will be strong for faith-based movies, videos and TV
- Pray that Christian producers, screen writers, actors, etc. will insist on wholesome productions
- Pray that all of us, especially our youth, will turn away from explicit, humanistic films in favor of wholesome, uplifting ones
- Pray that Facebook and other entities will not be used for obscenities and bullying
- Pray that live entertainment in Maury County will be family-oriented
- Pray that Columbia’s new art center will attract Christian artists
- Pray that people will not feel the need to be entertained constantly
- Pray that Christians (young and older) in Maury County will prioritize time for prayer and studying God’s Word
- Pray that Satan’s hold on arts and entertainment will be broken and public demand for decency will be evident
By Marynelle Criswell

Softly and tenderly, Jesus is calling,
Calling for you and for me.
See on the portals He’s waiting and watching,
Watching for you and for me.
Come home, come home,
You who are weary, come home.
Earnestly, tenderly, Jesus is calling Calling O sinner, come home.

How can anyone not love Jesus? Why would anyone fail to accept an invitation to live now as His friend and through eternity with Him? Jesus is Yeshua in Hebrew and means Jehovah saves. His mission was to seek and save the lost. (Matthew 18:11).
Without doubt, we all have one or more in our family who have strayed from God--or who never were in God’s family to begin with. It grieves our hearts to imagine they are lost, so how do we pray for them?

Ezekiel 18:32: For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone who dies, declares the LORD God. Therefore repent and live.

If we are grieved, the Holy Spirit is even more so. The Spirit is always wooing even the most hardened heart, going after that one straying lamb. When we pray for another person to get right with God and accept Jesus’ salvation, we are not violating their free will. Even God doesn’t do that. People always have a choice.

How does the Holy Spirit apprehend the lost? It was I who taught Ephraim to walk, taking them by the arms; but they did not realize it was I who healed them. I led them with cords of human kindness, with ties of love. I lifted the yoke from their neck and bent down to feed them. (Hosea 11:3-4). Pray this for your friends and loved ones. They need the Holy Spirit’s love and gentle persuasion, not more trauma.

Our intercessory prayers can limit satanic activity and allow the Holy Spirit’s influence to impact their lives. When our desire and God’s desire for their salvation are aligned, our attitude and demeanor toward them changes. We know that God will orchestrate events in their lives that give them chance after chance to turn to Him. The Holy Spirit is not one to give up on people. If they reject an opportunity, He will present another.

Our faith agrees with God’s desire for their salvation. Jesus could not do miracles in Nazareth, Chorazin, and Bethsaida because of unbelief. (See Mark 6:5; Luke 10:13) Our unbelief and inattention can cause us to give up and accept others’ lost conditions. Our unbelief coincides with Satan’s and allows him to deceive and continue to block truth from getting to their minds. Pray to remove the veil that covers their understanding, that God’s truth can become clear to them. Ask God for the kind of faith that “calls things which do not exist as though they did.” (Romans 4:11)

Pray that strongholds/wrong beliefs will be shattered (pride, fear, anger, stubbornness, apathy, rebellion, etc.).
The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary they have divine power to demolish strongholds. (2 Corinthians 10:5).

What I say with my mouth about my children, other family or friends is important. Instead of “My son is a lost cause!” , declare, “My son is in the process of turning to the Lord.” This statement is a faith declaration, indicating that I believe God is working constantly to fulfill that reality - no matter what I see happening right now.

This kind of faith is alive and expectant. It is God’s kind of faith. Remember how the father in Luke 15 was watching for his son to come home? This is indeed a picture of how expectantly God waits for a lost one to respond. And He wants us to have that same kind of expectant faith. Not faith in ourselves, but faith in the power of God’s word (which may have been sown years ago), and faith in the power and love of the Holy Spirit to touch that person. We must “see” (i.e. visualize in our minds) the person coming to repentance and salvation.

Finally, praise God (in advance) that He will deliver. Thank Him for working their salvation... it is God who works in _________ to will and to act according to his good purpose.
(Philippians 2:12). Softly and tenderly, Jesus is calling our loved ones.

Our prayers for the lost in Maury County show God that we care as we invite the Holy Spirit to touch our county. You will be blessed when you join other believers on the morning of June 10, 2017, at 9:00 on the Courthouse steps.
Lessons that give us guidance and confidence, while living a Christian life and serving a loving God.
