

OUR GUEST PREACHER'S BIO

Rev. Tim Short: In 2016, I began my time of service as chaplain at Ohio Living - Rockynol. I am so blessed and thankful for this opportunity. I grew up in rural Northwest Ohio, near Archbold, which is one hour west of Toledo. After high school, I joined my parents on our family pig farm. In my late twenties, God was pulling me in another direction. I went to seminary and then was pastor of a small Mennonite church for 6 years. Later, I was involved as a part-time chaplain for a hospital and nursing home. Most recently, I completed a one-year residency program for chaplains at St. Vincent Charity Medical Center in Cleveland. My wife, Missy, and I will celebrate 15 years of marriage in July. God has blessed us with two daughters, Marianne (14) and Rose (13). We live in Wadsworth.
