Simeon's Invitation

Among all the moving parts of the moving story of the first Christmas, none is more touching than the moment when Simeon takes the Christ child in his arms and blesses God. An angel had visited him too, promising him even at his advanced age that he would not die before he would see the Messiah. Simeon's life is a parable of both the long waiting for and the sudden appearance of salvation for which Israel hoped.

He takes Jesus in his arms, and says,

“Lord, now let your servant depart in peace, according to your word;
for my eyes have seen your salvation,
which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples,
a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and for glory to your people Israel.”

These are the words that the Church locates in the face of death, at the end of the funeral service, as the casket of the deceased is moving out of the sanctuary and toward the cemetery. A wonderful prayer, and what a blessing, indeed, to be able to die in peace, because you have seen for yourself, you have held in your arms, in your heart, the Messiah.

And while living smack dab in the middle of life (or so it seems), and viewing my own death at some distance (who knows?), Simeon's words nevertheless invite me into peaceful life, into joy, here and now! If indeed, I have seen Jesus for myself, might I echo the words of Simeon, take them as my own?

Lord, now let your servant live in peace, according to your word;
For my eyes have seen your salvation ...

Here's the truth. God is faithful, and we have been so richly blessed with the coming of God's Son, a Savior. Oh, how I want to die like Simeon, with a deep sense of peace, AND oh, how I want to live too with that same peace having invaded my spirit. The key to it all, it seems, rests in God's faithfulness to follow through on a Holy Promise and the chance we have with precious day and breath of life to take Jesus in our own arms and bless God.

Because we have seen Jesus, we see God's salvation come to life, and we live and die with peace. That's the invitation old Simeon sends to us, this real possibility of a life full of peace. May it be so as you begin a new year!

Children's Rotation Sunday School

What is it?

We're now in another great year of Rotation Sunday School. What is Rotation Sunday School? This curriculum style focuses on teaching major Bible stories and concepts through kid-friendly, multi-media workshops, such as: art, drama, music, cooking, puppets, storytelling, games, audio-visual, and woodworking. Children learn the same Bible story four consecutive weeks, rotating to a different workshop each week. Personal connection, familiarity and continuity are provided by a volunteer called a "shepherd." These individuals accompany the children each week and focus on building relationships.

2013-2014 Theme: THE WORD OF GOD

The Word of God, as passed on to us through the Bible and the lives of the faithful, is a multifaceted jewel providing for us many different ways to enter into the story of faith. It is from these words that we receive guidance and support as we travel on the journey of faith. From the ancient text of Genesis to the power of Revelation God's word continues to be relevant to our lives.

Ezekiel

Workshops:

Moved by the Spirit: Kids will learn the story of Ezekiel through an interactive drama and pace off the scope of Ezekiel's vision of the new Temple in Jerusalem while the teacher acts as tour guide.

Thou Art: Kids will watch excerpts from Disney's "Lion King", making the connections to Ezekiel's story, and create pictures of Ezekiel's "dry bones" visions using pastels.

Garden of Eatin': After hearing about Ezekiel's call as a prophet, kids will make crepes as a reminder that God told him to eat the scrolls and taste multi-grain bread to remind them of the anticipated hardship of the exile.

Puppetry: Kids will create a black-light puppet show featuring trick-or-treaters who ponder the skeletons they learned about in Sunday School. The African-American spiritual "Dry Bones" is the featured song using glow-in-the-dark life-size skeletons.

Outlive Your Life: Discover How You Can Make a Difference

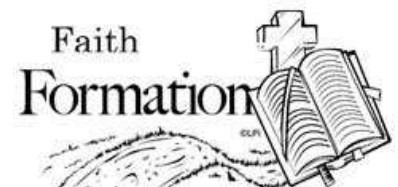

January 12, 19, 26, & February 2
9:30—10:30 in the Upper Room

Everyone wants to know that their time on earth has some significance. We all want to make a difference.

These are difficult days in our world's history. Billions of people are poor, millions go hungry or thirsty every day. Disease claims thousands of lives daily. But you and I have been given an opportunity to make a big difference. What if we did? What if we rocked the world with hope? Infiltrated all corners with God's love and life? We are created by a great God to do great works. He invites us to outlive our lives, not just in heaven, but here on earth. What if you lived in such a way that your death is just the beginning of your life?

In Outlive Your Life DVD-Based Study, Max Lucado presents four sessions that follow the real-life stories of people who are making their lives count. Each session will show us not just why but how to live intentionally so that everything in our lives - our time, our skills, our passions - all add up to something bigger than each of us.

Come and join in another great discussion about issues that are integral to our faith.

Music Notes

January? Already? I'm not - or don't WANT to be - there, yet. It's only December 22 and I want to enjoy ALL of 2013.

Still, I do have some plans for 2014. Choir will reprise the fun and splendid: "Let There Be Light" for Epiphany, January 5. On January 19, "He Put a New Song in My Heart" will echo Psalm 40.

During one of Pastor Peter's challenging Advent messages, I reflected on the general focus of music for our worship. I aim for three main things:

- Does the text fit the spiritual/scriptural theme?
- Does the music make an inspirational, emotional communication?
- Is there suitability, challenge! and variety for our choir (and congregation)?

As always, I appreciate your feedback and input. New musical contributions are always welcome too.

2014 is a clean slate as we endeavor to ...

"Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness,
Bow down before Him his honor proclaim:
With gold of obedience and incense of purity
Kneel and adore Him, the Lord is his name."

For music in service of our Savior in 2014, Dawn

WCC Trustee Report through Mid-December, 2013

As of mid-December 2013, we are still considerably behind in meeting our giving commitments. We have slightly reduced our deficit since November, however, we are still far short of meeting our actual 2013 expenses! In early 2014, the WCC Trustees will finalize the 2013 financials and develop a 2014 budget proposal for discussion and approval in our 2014 Business meeting in February. This proposal will be based on our 2013 actual, and your planned pledges for 2014.

Thank you to those who have responded to our financial and operational needs in 2013 and to all who have acted on our call for 2014 pledges.

» Projects:

- WCC sign permit process is in its final stages. We anticipate the project to start in early 2014. Contact Marty Spellman or René Nelson with any questions.
- WCC playground permit has passed. We anticipate this project to start in Spring 2014. Contact Linnea Johnson with any questions.
- WCC property landscape design subcommittee is developing a draft master plan to be available by late January. Members include Kurt Kovacic, Peter A. Nelson, Roger Schmitt, Chris Lyngso, Gary Eanes, Judy Isaacson, Emily Voit and Dawn Pegis.

6-week moms' Bible study in the works for January and February - Help with child care needed

A group of moms with kids up through 5th grade is interested in having a small group Bible study, and we're looking for some other women to help with child care. Might you be interested in helping make this time of formation possible for them?

We're looking at starting 2 groups, both meeting for six weeks - one on Monday evenings beginning on January 6 at 7:00, and another on Friday mornings beginning on January 10 at 9:30. Both will meet at church so that children can be cared for in the preschool and nursery rooms.

Family Promise - January 5 - 12

Family Promise is a network of area churches that take turns hosting temporarily homeless families for one week at a time, providing dinner, overnight housing and breakfast each day of that week.

During the days, the children of the families are able to stay in whatever school they attended before their families lost their housing and the adults work with the Director of the program to secure employment and permanent housing.

Our next scheduled hosting week begins on January 5 and continues through January 12.

Please check the website (www.winnetkacovenant.org) to find out where during that week you might be able to help out.

Mailbox

A sincere thank you to all my church family for your love and support during my lengthy confinement at Glenview Terrace. Your visits, telephone calls, lovely flowers, and cards were so encouraging and uplifting. I am very grateful, too, for your many prayers on my behalf - which I know hastened the healing process.

I am now recuperating at home and am eager to be back among you soon.

Patty Frazer

Dear Winnetka Covenant Church Family.

Greetings from Grand Rapids, MI, I hope all of you are doing well.

I moved into my shared living home in Grand Rapids, it's called Hope House. I love living at Hope House with my five housemates. Their names are Beth, Robin, Angie, Liz and Melanie. We all get along so great! We have two Hope House parents named Rhonda and Tim who are the best. We are all so blessed to have them in our lives.

During the week, I am going to a school at Grand Valley State where I attend school. It's a special needs program helping people get the skills to get a job.

The First Evangelical Covenant Church here has been incredibly supportive of our home and we attend Wednesday night dinners. We thank them so much for their continued support.

I wish you all a very merry Christmas and a wonderful New Year. Miss you all.

Love, Laurel Siebrasse
