

Engaging Fully in the Mission of the Church

MON pm—TUES afternoon
June 25-26

*Registration Deadline—June 11
(Lodging Deadline—May 24)*

1701 W. Allen Street, Rice Lake

WAYNE OTTO

Keynote Speaker

Wayne is lead pastor of Providence Wesleyan Church in Summerville, SC. He moved there six years ago with a mission to start a church multiplication movement. As an avid practitioner of multiplication, Wayne has planted seven innovative churches, who have also planted churches, reaching thousands of people for Christ. Recently, at his current church's 5th birthday, they commissioned two of their pastoral staff to plant daughter churches. He has demonstrated that money nor church size need to be barriers to the planting of new churches. He serves as trainer and coach to church planters all over the United States. Wayne and his wife, Amy, have three children and one grandchild.

BREAKOUT PRESENTERS

Leading Yourself, Leading Others Heather Semple

Speaking to pastors and church leaders, Heather will share how to lead yourself and your leadership team. Heather is lead pastor of Red Cedar, growing from 400+ to over 1,200 in weekend attendance, with over 500 salvations last year. She is continually learning and growing in leading herself and others.

Big Dreams in Smaller Places Steve McVey

As lead pastor of Lamont Wesleyan Church in a township of less than 100 people, Steve measures success by how many they send out. With their satellite campus, they average 400, and have, and are, planting churches. Steve knows the potential and possibilities of great impact in smaller places. He is also founder of The Dirt Roads Network.

Multiply, Multiply, Multiply Wayne Otto

Wayne will share about obedience, stepping out, risk-taking, and casting vision for church multiplication. Practical info will be given on what each church can do to be part of multiplication.
