PRAYER REQUESTS

Coming forward Sunday: Chanelle Snowden, Sharon Andreas

Rodessa Jones— Please pray for me if I have to have my gallstones removed if they find any, I have been having pain in my stomach, pray that it goes well for me. Also keep sister Sarah and sister James in prayer for healing also my family. Thank you.

Angel Carrillo— I love you Lord. I pray to always stay focused on you. Put you first in all I say and do in everything and to never fall out of your will, I want a closer walk with you.

John Jones— Prayer for my wife.

Roy Hightower— I am still homeless. Keep your prayers coming, pray for the housing authority to get the funding for the homeless. Pray that I get housing or a room somewhere. God bless all of you.

Don & Elsie Troxell— Don's leg is about the same with cellulitis. Keep him in your prayers. Thank you.

Doug Wright/Susan Barber— Please pray for us to find the path God has for both of us and for our relatives and those who would listen, to come to a saving relationship in the Lord. And PGE to hire me for work.

Glenna Gammel— My dad died Mar. 3 of a heart attack. He lived in Oregon.
There was no service. My daughter Jennifer Dennis fell and twisted her ankle very bad.

Cheryl & Cedric Rowe— All praise and glory to our Father the Lord Jesus Christ. Continue to keep our daughter and her husband in your prayers.

James Bailey— Still need prayer on some issues, a battle that I am overcoming but still need prayer for strength.

Matthew Peterson— Prayer for family and friends. I am still looking for a job.

Chanelle Snowden— I just ask God to help me have patience with my son and others. And to learn to put him first. I want to also pray for my friend that he finds his way to Christ and that he keeps trying.

Nicole Mason— Mary Mehrdash is recovering from knee surgery. If you can please keep her in your prayers. Thank you.

Larry Cooley— Pray for the families in Japan and for God's mercy and peace. Pray for my mama's health and the whole family.

Frederick Goodrich— Please continue to keep Brother Bruce Lee in your prayers, he has had a good heart health report. Thanks.

Adrian & Jessica Pacheco— Lord, please assist us in doing your service in a proper way because you are worthy and along with doing your will that the things of this world get done in a Godly way and let's praise our Father.

Shyanne Jones— Pray for my mother to find God again.

Yesenia Carrillo— I want to thank God for everything. Thank you God and love you.

Bonnie Farris— Thank you for your prayers, telephone calls and etc. I am feeling so much better now.

Al Sanchez— My sister Alice, a member of the church, is moving back to CA, after being cheated out of her job in CO. She will be looking for a job and then a home. Please pray for her.

Princellar Crews— Please pray for my grand-daughter, Nina Davis. She will have had surgery on the 23rd. Please pray for my grand-son and all the young men and women in the military. Thank you for praying for Bill and me. God Bless.

TIM TALK

The following was written by Alan Smith, preacher for the Helen Street church in Fayetteville, NC.
I thought the message was worth sharing.

Until we meet again...TWP

These are some of the frivolous lawsuits filed by convicted prisoners across the United States (which are subsidized by taxpayers).

~ An inmate, calling himself a sports fanatic, complained that, as a result of cruel and unusual punishment, he was forced to miss the NFL playoffs ~ especially the "classic " between Miami and San Diego, San Diego and Pittsburgh, and Dallas and San Francisco.

~ An inmate complained because his meal allegedly was in poor condition. He claims his sandwich was soggy and his cookie was broken.

~ An inmate who murdered five people sued after lightning knocked out the prison's TV satellite dish and he had to watch network programs, which he said contained violence, profanity, and other objectionable material.

~ An inmate sued to be given Reeboks, Adidas, Pony, or Avia hightops rather than the inferior brand sneakers issued by the prison.

~ An inmate sued for not receiving his scheduled parole hearing, though he was out on escape when the hearing was to be held.

~ An inmate sued because he was required to eat off of a paper plate.

~ An inmate sued because he didn't like his mail being stamped in a way that indicated it was being sent from a state prison.

~ An inmate who was a murderer sued for $25,000, claiming a "defective" haircut resulted in lost sleep, headaches, and chest pains.

We get quite a different picture of a prisoner in the New Testament by the name of Paul. While he wasn't afraid to demand his rights (Acts 22:25; 25:11), neither was Paul one to whine and complain and mope while in prison (and he hadn't even committed a crime!). Listen to this positive statement which came from Paul's pen as he sat in chains:

"Now I want you to know, brothers, that what has happened to me has really served to advance the gospel. As a result, it has become clear throughout the whole palace guard and to everyone else that I am in chains for Christ. Because of my chains, most of the brothers in the Lord have been encouraged to speak the word of God more courageously and fearlessly..... And because of this I rejoice. Yes, and I will continue to rejoice." (Philippians 1:12-14, 18b).

This passage is an encouragement to me in those times when it seems that life is treating me unfairly. If Paul could maintain such a positive spirit and joy in the midst of such difficulty, surely I can do the same. There is much to be thankful for!

"Father, help me to truly understand that what matters most in life is not being comfortable, being stress-free, or even being treated fairly. What matters most is that I am living in a way that brings you the glory and draws others around me closer to you. Please help me to do that. In Jesus' name, amen."
