Also there are so many others (68 total) who had a part in making it a great success. If you have any suggestions that may improve the workshop for next year, please let the office know. Thank you so much, God bless you all.

TIM TALK

Wow! Last week I experienced my first-ever WPCOC Spiritual Growth Workshop...and I was VERY impressed. The lineup of speakers was excellent. The subjects were timely. And the fellowship was second-to-none!

There are so many people who I would like to recognize for their contributions to the workshop, but I am sure I would leave some people out. Working behind the scenes is sometimes a thankless job. I received credit from many for things I didn't even know happened. I tried to make sure people knew that I was just here, and that you all had made this thing happen this year.

I do want to mention one person by name. Everywhere I looked I saw him practically running. If there was a problem, he was right on it. He was constantly aware of what things were happening and ensuring in his quiet, humble way that things went smoothly. Thank you, Ron Lovelace, for your giving spirit of service. I get to see Ron on a regular basis working around the building changing light bulbs, repairing irrigation lines, and so much more. I am sure he would prefer not to be mentioned. That seems to be his way. But honor where honor is due is a good thing. I continue to be encouraged by the way that you, as a church, sing. I have had the privilege of being with churches all over the country (and a few out of the country) and have never been anywhere that I thought the singing was better.

"Until we meet again...TWP"

To our church family,
May God, whose love is everywhere, bless you everyday, for being what you always are, so loving, caring, kind, and sharing what you have with others. Julie and I were so blessed Sunday night by our whole family. Your prayers as usual were uplifting and I am feeling better. Your calls and concern are so appreciated.

Our love, Dean & Julie Berry

To all the members, I wish to thank every one for the prayers for Wilma and me. Thanks for the card and phone calls. I especially thank Dave & Evelyn Gowen and Ron Lovelace for cleaning the house and cleaning the yard. Words cannot express my appreciation for all the love you all have shown to Wilma and me.
