and The Lord Called Him Home

Frank Miller passed away on October 1, 2010. Frank was a devoted Christian and always willing to work to maintain our building and grounds. His love for gardening is apparent in our beautiful landscaping. He worked diligently with Mountain View School and College Church on the building and grounds. He loved his Lord and his family. Our prayers and sympathy to Arlene and her loving family.

HOUSE on the ROCK Please sign up to prepare meals for "The House on the Rock" on Friday nights. Schedule is on the Welcome Center. Your thoughtfulness is so much appreciated by these men.

Notice: There is an elder at our building each Sunday morning by 7:30 am. If you would like to speak with an elder privately, this would be an opportune time.

TIM TALK

My friend and brother, Phil Sanders, preaches on the nationally televised "In Search of the Lord's Way" program. Before going to work with the church in Edmond, OK that oversees this work, Phil preached for many years for the good Concord Road church near Nashville, TN. Phil shares this work with the well-known Mack Lyon (who has been on the program at Tahoe). In an edition of "The Searchlight," the newsletter for the Search program, Phil wrote the following article. It challenges me every time I read it. May it help deepen your walk with Him who demands our focus! Until we meet again...TWP

See Only Christ

You are familiar, no doubt, with one of the most famous paintings ever done by any artist: The Last Supper by Leonardo Da Vinci, that classic portrayal of Christ and the twelve apostles at the table.

Many students of art history believe that the painting, when first created, was somewhat different from the version which we now see. There was initially, it is believed, an exquisite lace border on the tablecloth. When, immediately upon completion, Da Vinci invited a group of art students to view his masterpiece, they were immensely impressed by the delicate design of that lace-work. They studied it intensely and praised it highly. Upon seeing the reaction of these young men, the artist took up a brush, dipped it, and made a few long strokes across the canvas, obliterating the lace. Then, with uncontrollable feeling, he shouted, "Now, look at the face of Christ!"

How easily we take our view off of Christ and put it upon some nice distraction. The Hebrew writer urged, "fixing our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God" (Heb. 12:2). Let us fix our eyes upon Him. Let us see His beauty, His love, His grace and His commitment to us. Then let us walk in His steps (1 Pet. 2:21-25).
