PRAYER REQUESTS

Responding to the invitation last Sunday:
Mark Latham, Lanel Mendez, Evie Gonzales, Richard Elliott, Lorrie Centeno

Dorothy James (visitor)—Please pray for my husband, Lester. He may have Parkinson's disease.

Ana Loce (visitor)—Pray for my dad who is homeless and my friend, Ralph in jail.

Elsie Christian & Mildred Bess—Pray for my health and the salvation of all my children and grandchildren. Also pray for the lost in the world and the innocent children.

Gayla Parker—Pray for me and my family to be renewed in Jesus Christ. Continue to show your presence as we seek the knowledge and wisdom in our Father who art in heaven. Giving us the purpose he has planned for us.

Toni Lytton—Please pray for Beth to recover. Thank you.

Diana Bennett—Pray for my grandson, Kalen Rotella

Mark Latham—Pray that I find the strength and understanding through our Lord so I can continue in his will and do his work.

Dean Berry—Please keep Julie in your prayers. She had some tests done this week and we are waiting for the results. Thank you and we love you.

Leah Young—Continue to pray for my mother Marlene Post with her recovery from Lymes Disease. She is on new medication for the infection and parasite. This makes her feel nauseated. Also both kids have the flu, please pray for them.

Martha Null—Please help me to stay focused on the Lord. Also for me to grow stronger and wiser. Please pray for Betty Richardson.

Paulette DeSantis—My mother, Ruby McGaughy, is improving and we anticipate her discharge from Horizon Health sometime this month. Thank you so much for your cards, visits, prayers, and concern.

Mark Isley—Bless my children and grandchildren.

Jessica Pacheco—Please pray that my son Ishmael will be safe and makes right choices as he lives in Arizona. Also that the Lord is in his life. Thank you.

Pete Bryant—A special thank you to everyone who sent cards and spoke words of comfort to me following the death of my brother.

Poem by Gary's Mother

Beyond The Gate

*There is a gate we cannot open,
For only God can have the key.
He calls someone he loves to enter,
Beyond the gate . . . where we can't be.*

*But past the gate there is a garden
That has no tears, no sorrow, or pain.
For they will have the love of God,
And they will have new life to gain.*

*When you think of that dear loved one,
And just how happy they must be,
Remember you have never lost them,
They are there . . . Someday you'll see.*

Mary M. Barton

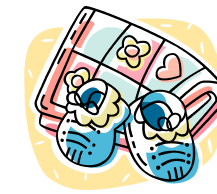

Our thoughts and prayers are with these members of our church family this week:

With Deepest Sympathy

- Gary Villamor's mother, Mary Barton. Services were held at Clovis Christian Church last Thursday at 11 am.
- Lorrie Centeno's mother, Joan Walkingstick. Services were held at Jay's Chapel in Madera last Friday at 2 pm.
- James Seaman, a former deacon of Palm Avenue, lost his battle with cancer on November 2, 2009. Jim was 60 years old. Cards can be sent to Ellen at 21136 NE 249th Avenue, Battle Ground, WA 98604
- Autry Jones, a long time member of Palm Avenue and one of our shut-ins, passed away last Wednesday. Autry was Flora Andrews' aunt. Services are pending.

"By their fruits you shall know them"

A card was received addressed to:

The Ladies Quilting & Crocheting Ministry, Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! You have given us the most beautiful baby blanket and this was the one thing I truly wanted! Your gift will be treasured and used greatly in the years to come. It is our prayer that God will continue to bless you and your talents as you bless others.
