Special Thanks

The Don and Terry Hinton families want to express our thankfulness for all the prayers, cards and loving expressions of sympathy in behalf of our Mom and Grandmother. We especially want to thank the Jerry Nevins-Salter Shepherding group who worked so hard to provide a wonderful luncheon for our family and friends. Terry and Carol

A Fall

Last week we were taking our daily walk, and I slipped on the ice and fell. While not severely hurt, I was bruised and stiff and sore for the next few days. I was also embarrassed. Two elderly ladies passing in their cars stopped to ask, "Are you okay?" "Can I help?" "Can I take you home?"

I didn't see the fall coming. One minute I was walking, and the next, I saw the pavement rising to meet me. That is so like sin. Sometimes we don't see it coming. One minute we are confident in our walk with God, and the next, we are entrapped in sin.

I was fortunate that I was not severely hurt. But it did hurt. Sin hurts, too. It damages our relationship with God and our fellow man. Sin impairs our reputation and bruises our self-esteem.

When I fell, Ed was there to help me, and two cars stopped. People were eager to help me get back up. When we sin, God is there to help us. Our fellow Christians are there to strengthen us and pray for us. Jesus, our Savior and merciful, faithful, high priest, was tempted like we are. He is able to succor us.

When we sin, let us come to the Father, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need. God is waiting to restore us to Him and to comfort us. (Heb. 4:16)

A Letter from Mom & Grandma

I gave you life, but I cannot live it for you.
I can teach you things, but I cannot make you learn.
I can give you directions, but I cannot be there to lead you.
I can take you to church, but I cannot make you believe.
I can teach you right from wrong, but I cannot always decide for you.
I can buy you beautiful clothes, but I cannot make you beautiful inside.

I can offer you advice, but I cannot accept it for you.
I can give you love, but I cannot make you love me.
I can teach you respect but I cannot force you to show honor.
I can advise you about friends, but I cannot choose them for you.
I can advise you about sex, but I cannot keep you pure.
I can tell you about drinking, but I can't say "no" for you.

I can warn you about drugs, but I can't prevent you from using them.
I can tell you about lofty goals, but I can't choose them for you
I can teach you about kindness, but I can't force you to be gracious.

I can warn you about sins, but I cannot make you moral.
I can tell you the gospel of salvation, but I cannot place you in God's family.

I can pray for you, but I cannot make you walk with God.
I can teach you about Jesus, but I cannot make Jesus your Lord.

I can love you unconditionally, all my life...and I will!

Love always, Mom & Grandma

Lost & Found:

Two coffee pots have wandered from the kitchen. If you know of their whereabouts, please return them to the kitchen. They need to come home.

Thanks for your help.
