TIM TALK

Last week, my family and I had the opportunity to attend a concert put on by the local home school choirs. Many of our kids from Woodward Park are part of these performing groups, and it was a very impressive concert.

During one part of the evening, a select group of students from all age groups performed a song in sign language. This group included our own Anaiah Bowden. The song they signed was by "You Are All To Us" by Chris Tomlin. While the performance moved me to tears, the words of the song really grabbed my heart. I wanted to share them with you, and with them pose a question: is Jesus ALL to us? Is He the foundation of everything we do? As you read these words, be honest about what Jesus really is to you, about what part of your life he occupies.

Until we meet again...TWP

You Are All To Us

Precious cornerstone, sure foundation,
You are faithful to the end.
We are waiting on You, Jesus.
We believe You're all to us.

Let the glory of Your name be the passion of the Church.
Let the righteousness of God be a holy flame that burns.
Let the saving love of Christ be the measure of our lives.
We believe You're all to us.

Only Son of God sent from Heaven,
Hope and mercy at the cross.
You are everything, You're the Promise,
Jesus, You are all to us!

When this passing world is over,
We will see You face to face,
And forever we will worship.
Jesus, You are all to us.
