1 Samuel 3:1-10

The boy Samuel ministered before the LORD under Eli. In those days the word of the LORD was rare; there were not many visions. One night Eli, whose eyes were becoming so weak that he could barely see, was lying down in his usual place. The lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was. Then the LORD called Samuel. Samuel answered, "Here I am." And he ran to Eli and said, "Here I am; you called me." But Eli said, "I did not call; go back and lie down." So he went and lay down. Again the LORD called, "Samuel!" And Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, "Here I am; you called me." "My son," Eli said, "I did not call; go back and lie down." Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD: The word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him. The LORD called Samuel a third time, and Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, "Here I am; you called me."

Then Eli realized that the LORD was calling the boy. So Eli told Samuel, "Go and lie down, and if he calls you, say, 'Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place. The LORD came and stood there, calling as at the other times, "Samuel! Samuel!" Then Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening."

The story is told of a farmer who was out in his field one day when he looked up at the summer sky and saw a most unusual cloud formation. As clear as day he saw white puffy clouds dance across the sky in the shape of a "P" and a "C." The first thought that crossed his mind was that this must be some kind of mystical experience and God—the Creator of the Ends of the Earth" was telling him—calling—him to "Preach Christ." Responding to that "call" he told his wife what he had seen. ... "I'm going to sell the farm and go start preaching he declared enthusiastically. His wife, who was a bit more practical perhaps, or maybe skeptical replied, "PC? What makes you think that it doesn't mean "Preach Christ" but "Plant Corn?"

Does God really call people to serve Him in particular ways? Who does God call, and how do they know? Could God be calling me to serve Him?

In his book, The Call, Os Guinness states, "Deep in our hearts we all want to find and fulfill a purpose bigger than ourselves. Only such a large purpose can inspire us to heights we know we could never reach on our own. For each of us the real purpose is personal and passionate: to know what we are here to do and why."

Is God calling you to something more? God still speaks (Hebrews 1:1,2, Revelation 3). The question is: are you still listening?
