PRAYER REQUESTS

Coming forward last Week:

Angel Carrillo— Father forgive me when I fall short of your glory and thank you Father for giving me strength and boldness to face my temptations and to know that my relationship with you is more valuable than my temptation. I love you Father.
Rodessa Jones— Prayers for upcoming finals, still need prayers for my housing and health issues. I know Jesus Christ is able. Prayers for everyone in the world today!!!

Rudy Lara— I want to ask the church family to continue to pray for my sister Lora, who is still suffering with breast cancer and her drug addictions that she is safe and would come to the Lord.
Robert & Evie Gonzales— Praise God for the transformation of Bobby in his life to glorify our Savior. Pray for our family to preach out to the lost souls.

Jeneatha Henderson— All praise and glory be to Jehovah for saving my soul. Thank you for my WPCOC family and the many prayers. Thank you for your many blessings. Thank you for my new sisters in Christ. I am mine no more, thank you Jesus. Lynn, Jennifer, Gayla, and Darlene, I ask for continued prayer on their behalf. Jehovah knows their needs, strengthen them.

Jennifer Rickert— Please Lord continue to give me the strength to make the right choices, so that I may stay in your will Lord.

Darlene Jenkins— I would like to acknowledge JD and Norma Nix for studying the bible with me and Mickey for baptizing me on this day!! Pray the Lord my Savior to guide me in His direction.

Emilio Carrillo— Love one another as you love yourself and everyone in the church will go heaven.

Cameron Reddell— My Aunt Wendy is having a baby and hope it to be healthy.

Bob Dupree—Son of Katherine Dupree and brother of Debbie Thomas, has been diagnosed with cancer in the lungs and liver. Pray for the best treatment to be determined. Pray strength and comfort for this loving family.

Jessica Pacheco—Please pray for me that I become strengthen by our Father God, to be bold as he would have me in his glory.

Church Family,
Our deepest appreciation for the numerous prayers, words of encouragement, phone calls, cards, food and flowers during these last four months while Maggie underwent surgery and 33 treatments of radiation therapy for breast cancer. Praise God, I now have a "new lease on life". We love you all and feel so blessed to be a part of the family of God at WPCOC. We plan to leave for Texas on May 10th for about three weeks. Please pray for a safe trip. Maggie & Charles Patterson

Our family was so blessed recently by your church at the funeral of our Grandpa George Adrian. The service was lovely and a wonderful tribute to God and Grandpa! We deeply appreciated those serving lunch. We were also very grateful for the lovely family that provided childcare! Thank you, Caleb & Dannaeca, Skandera & family

TIM TALK

Today, we celebrate mothers. Julia Ward Howe attempted the institution of such an observance in 1870, though it was not until 1914 that then-President Woodrow Wilson declared a national Mother's Day. However, praising our mothers for their lives and devotion to us has roots at least as far back as the book of Proverbs, with the discussion of the "virtuous woman" (Proverbs 31). I came across a song this week ("When You Come Home" by Mark Schultz) in preparing for today's sermon that really captured what I saw in my own mother, who was always there - and still is. I have only shared a portion of the lyrics, but hope that you can go listen to the song this week (tissues in hand) and maybe share it with your mother. Until we meet again...TWP

My first day of recess, they all laughed at me,
When I fell off the swing set and scraped up my knee.

The nurse called my Momma to say I'd be late,
And when she gave me the phone, I could hear Momma say,
"I'm so sorry, son. Oh I think you're so brave"
And she was smilin' when she said:

When you come home, no matter how far,
Run through the door and into my arms.
It's where you are loved, it's where you belong.
And I will be here when you come home.

Lynn Brown

I was born in San Diego and my father was in the Navy. We moved to Northern CA when I was six. I had a great childhood, including 11 years of cheerleading, 4 years of track and was exposed to the great world of the Arts.

I moved back to San Diego at 17. I have three children, am single and am looking for work. I enjoy working with children and cooking. I'm very blessed to be here with my new church family and am looking forward to making new friends and being more active in our church.

END OF THE SCHOOL YEAR PARTY

Friday, May 18, @ 7pm on the lawn at the building. Bring your favorite dessert, ice cream etc. And a blanket or lawn chairs for an old Disney classic.
