PRAYER REQUESTS

Ramon Tostado—Pray for me for prior injuries.

Edin & Crystal Semple—Pray for us as we have just been baptized and that we stay on the right path. Pray for Crystal's knee.

Dawn Davies—A lady who lives near me asked for prayers. Margaret is fighting cancer and she is worried for her children. They lost their Dad just 2 years ago.

Emilio—Pray for my wonderful uncle to return safely.

Angel Corrillo—My brother is facing a hard decision to make regarding going back to Yuma to take care of his kids. He will be facing temptations daily.

Glenna Gammel—Evelyn Abram has rescheduled surgery for May 14th. My tests came back good.

Heather Aguayo—I am so happy to become a member today. Pray for my husband, Joshua that through my actions he grows to know the Lord.

Martha Null—Thank you for the card and prayers for my surgery. Pray for my sister, Betty. She has a closed valve in her heart.

Casie Reddell—Thank you for all the prayers.

Vincent Monk—I thank God for putting people like Greg Clark in my life and my brothers at the House on the Rock.

Rodessa Jones—Pray for my neighbor, Ms Barbara Bronnard and the ladies at WestCare and my family.

Cheryl Rowe— I love my church family.
Louise Bridges—Sister of our Juanita Stout, fell and broke her pelvis bone along with other health issues.

Attention: All Newly Baptized Members

This class is designed for all who were recently (or within the last 6 months) baptized into Christ. As new Christians, you will learn to become fruitful and mature spiritually through Bible study and prayer.

“Now That I Am A Christian”

Teacher: Terry Hinton—Library, Room 116

Do What You Can

Those who have been engaged in personal evangelism have tended to emphasize that every Christian is responsible for carrying out the Great Commission, which is true. But it can, and has often been, presented as if those sitting by the baggage are merely second class members, not carrying a full load.

In 1 Samuel 30: 24, David was pursuing the Amalekites with his army of 600 men, but some 200 of them became exhausted from the pursuit and the dwindling provisions. Not able to go any farther, they remained behind to guard the baggage, or as is said today, "watch the stuff."

The 400 men returned victorious, but some felt they should not have to share the spoils with the 200 who merely watched. "No," David said, "If you fought in the battle, you get a share and if you stayed with the baggage, you get a share." Surely, there's a lesson here important to us.

In 1 Corinthians 12:14ff, Paul states the body consists of many members and not all have the same function. It's an emphasis of which all must be aware, that you are important to the body of Christ, and to God, no matter the limitations of your body and resources and ability. Some then, as now, couldn't fight as hard or travel as fast, and some were aging and were soon worn out.

For inspiration, let's look at those who did stay behind and why they were given credit. One, none had deserted or rebelled. Two, there was no attempt to discourage those who went into battle. Three, all rejoiced in the triumph, for they had waited with the baggage with not only hope, but anxiety. Fourth, they did what they could.

And the result? David indicated they would be rewarded. The message seems to be, as if ever was, "Do what you can, where you are, and with what you have!"
