What's The Church To You?

A good self-image is important for an individual and for the church. In the Lord's church, we have much over which to agonize; but let us never lose track of the church's greatness.

What is the church to you? The church is not a building, nor is it a social club. Here are a few considerations:

The Church Is My Spiritual Family.* Fellow-Christians are my brothers and sisters in the Lord. I love them, and they love me. I fervently hope to live with them eternally in Heaven with our Father and our elder Brother (Jesus).

The Church Is My Support Group.* "Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ" (Galatians 6:2). Just as members of a physical body support and assist each other, so it is with members of the spiritual body of Christ (1 Corinthians 12:26, 27). When I need counsel or a shoulder to cry on, give me one godly, wise Christian instead of all the Humanistic "experts" (?) in the world!

The Church Is The Pillar And Ground Of The Truth* (1 Timothy 3:15). Her God-ordained mission includes upholding His word (which is truth, John 17:17). In these uncertain times when the secular world scoffs and even the religious world back-pedals and side-steps, thanks be to God for faithful congregations which fearlessly support the proclamation of the truth!

The Church Is The Precious Bride Of Christ For Which He Died* (Ephesians 5:25-27). Christ loves the church. If I don't love the church, I am out of sync with Jesus! Let no one belittle the church as insignificant. Who is more significant to a loving husband than his wife?

You can extend this list from the Scriptures. It's a good exercise for each of us.

What is the church to you?
