As most of you have heard by now, my family will be leaving Woodward Park in July to move to Lebanon, Tennessee. I have accepted the position of Preaching Minister at the Maple Hill church. I cannot describe to you how difficult this decision was. We were not looking for a job, nor did we apply for this job. Rather, we were pursued by Maple Hill. It was beyond us to know what was best, so we prayed, and prayed and prayed. Ultimately, we believed God had placed this in front of us and that we could either follow Him or ignore Him.

I believe that God has big things in store for you. However good you think it has been, God always has something better in mind. God's plan for his people will ALWAYS be accomplished. What God has in store for Woodward Park WILL be done, whether I am here or any of us are here.

I want you to know that the Parish family will never be the same because of our time with you. Coming to Woodward Park has been one of the greatest blessings to my life and my family's life. We have grown more in our time here than we would have ever imagined possible. You have given me the freedom to stretch and find my place. You have allowed me to heal from some deep wounds that almost pushed me out of ministry. You have encouraged me. You have loved me and my family. You have allowed me to come back to a fuller relationship with God. You have given my family opportunities to see what real outreach looks like. And you have helped me to once again love ministry. My family and I will be forever in your debt. We love you with all our hearts. Until we meet again...TWP

Josh & Kate Garcia

We moved to Fresno three weeks ago from Santa Maria, CA. Josh works as a paramedic with American Ambulance and Kate is a homemaker. We have a beautiful daughter, Elleanna, who is 10 months old.

We were married 8 years ago when Josh was in the United States Marine Corps and Kate had just graduated from Cal Poly Pomona with her bachelors in Hospitality Management and a minor in Culinary Arts.

Josh likes to work on cars and Kate bakes. Together we like to camp, hike, bike, go boating and shooting. We look forward to growing and working with the church family here.
