Reminder

Remember to pick up your 8 x 10 picture at the Welcome Center. Please let the office know if you have not received your portrait.

To my Church Family,
I sincerely thank you for your prayers, visits, cards and many acts of love. Special thanks to Maggie, Jerry and Peggy for bringing us the delicious food. To all of you who came to share memories of Bill with us: you were our honored guest. I was so happy to have you there. A very special thanks to John Ed and the elders who helped me so much; also to Ed & Suzi, Charles & Jennie, Terry & Carol and Tom & Mae. Please remember me in your prayers. Your calls and visits are welcome.

PRAYER REQUESTS

Responses Last Sunday: Virginia Bennett, Cedric Rowe

Steve & Hilda Stoll—Please pray for us as we will be traveling to Haiti this week. Also pray for Johnson's adoption process.

Rodessa Jones— Please continue to keep me and my family in prayers and pray for my friend, Ms. Barbara Brown for her blood clots to go away! Prayers for the children that are returning to school very soon. I love my church family.

Cheryl Rowe— Keep my grandson in prayers. He has temporary paralysis on the left side of his face.

Jeanetha Henderson— All praise and glory be to Jehovah. Thank you for the sponsor for Tyra to go to the Magic Mountain youth trip. Jehovah please continue to strengthen me in your word. May all my actions, deeds, and words, reflect Christ in me. Once again I am unemployed; but I know that it is you Jehovah that will see me through each day. I will continue to abide in your word and service to you. Let go and let God. Your will be done. Thank you for peace in my life.

Larry Cooley— Really enjoy being in service today to worship with you and thank you for every thing that I have been through and being on the other side of it now. I love you Father.

Barbara Floyd— Barbara will be admitted to Saint Agnes for possible pneumonia. She is also to have a biopsy of her lungs to see if she has lung cancer. She expects to be in the hospital for 5 to 10 days.

Rod & Candy Hall— For Rod's brother, Ron and his family to come back to church and to grow close to us once again.

Carol Armstrong— Please continue prayers for my daughter Dene and grandchildren.

Dixie Jones— I have fell twice this month and injured myself, pray I will learn to stay upright. Thank you

Renee & N'Gai Merrill— Prayer request for our nephew, Michael White and his girlfriend Farrah Soudani who were shot on Friday in Aurora, CO. We are thankful to God for their lives and pray for their continued recovery from their physical and emotional wounds. Thank you for your prayers for our families.

By their fruits you shall know them . . .

We distributed food to more than 160 families last Saturday.

THE BROKEN ONES

Maggie came home one day with a raggedy, Raggedy Ann.

Said, "Mommy look-a here what I found in the neighbors garbage can."

Had a missing left arm and a right button eye, hanging by a thread,

She carried it gently up to her room and laid it on her bed... with her other dolls.

She loves the broken ones, the ones that need a little patchin' up,

She sees the "diamond in the rough" and makes them shine like new,

It really doesn't take that much, a willin' heart and a tender touch,

If everybody loved like she does, there'd be a lot less broken ones.

Twenty years later in a shelter on Eighteenth Avenue,

A seventeen-year old girl turns up all black and blue.

Needle tracks in her left arm, almost too weak to stand,

She says, "I'm lost, I need help," and Maggie takes her hand...and says, "Come on in."

She loves the broken ones, the ones that need a little patchin' up,

She sees the "diamond in the rough" and makes them shine like new,

It really doesn't take that much, a willin' heart and a tender touch,

If everybody loved like she does, there'd be a lot less broken ones.

You call her an Angel, she'll be quick to say to you,

She's just do'in what the One who died for her would do...

Love the broken ones, the ones that need a little patchin' up,

See a "diamond in the rough" and make um shine like new,

It really doesn't take that much, a willin' heart and a tender touch,

If everybody loved like He does, there'd be a lot less broken ones.

If everybody loved like she does, there'd be a lot less broken ones.
