To the most wonderful family of God’s people,
You have been most gracious and loving to Julie and me for many years and we appreciate each of you more than you know. Julie misses each of you and asks about you each week when I get home. Your cards, calls and prayers and food have been such a blessing to her—and me too!! We love you all and pray God’s blessings on each of you.
Dean & Julie Berry
PRAYER REQUESTS
Jessica Pacheco—Thank you for keeping my kids safe. God. You are the mighty and all my worries I give to you. Thank you
Jeanetha Henderson—Thank you for your blessings. Lord help me to make disciples. Forgive my sins. Help me grow in your word.

Thank you Lord for your love and provision. Thank you for keeping my kids safe. God. You are the mighty and all my worries I give to you. Thank you Lord for the House on the Rock and those who manage it.

There is no shortage of people who are willing to point out all the negative things of life, and too many times we believe them. It is also true that we are actually able to reach. And when we don’t measure up, the negative thoughts begin to overtake us.

I recall a song from the days of yesteryear sung by Johnny Mercer (and many others) that said, “You’ve got to accentuate the positive, eliminate the negative, and latch on to the affirmative. Don’t mess with Mister In-Between.”

I am reminded of God’s plans for Jeremiah; “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I have appointed you a prophet to the nations” (Jeremiah 1:5).

God has a plan for your life. He loves you and is not mad at you. He knows your strength and your weakness and will fill in where your fall short. Someone is looking at you and seeing only possibilities. It is not the power of positive thinking, it is the power of “God thinking.”
