

KINGS BAPTIST CHURCH COVENANT
(Revised July 2011)

Having been brought by God’s grace to repent and believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, we now, depending upon the Holy Spirit, establish this covenant with one another:

- In all we do, we will aim to glorify and enjoy the God of our salvation, from whom and through whom and to whom are all things: to Him be all glory forever! (1 Cor. 10:31; Rom. 11:36).
- We will eagerly maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace by walking together in love and in the Spirit and by putting away all bitterness, anger, and injurious speech. (Eph. 4:3; Gal. 5:16, 25; Eph. 4:29, 31)
- With humility and gentleness, patience and love, we will be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, even as God, for Christ’s sake, has forgiven us. (Eph. 4:1-2; Luke 17:3; Col. 3:13; 1 Thess. 5:11; 1 Pet. 1:22)
- We will joyfully engage in corporate and individual prayer for our faith family, our community, and our world. (Ephesians 6:18-20, James 5:13-18; I Timothy 2:1-3, 8).
- We will carry each other’s burdens, rejoicing with those who rejoice and weeping with those who weep. (Gal. 6:2; Rom. 12:15)
- We will train our children in the instruction of the Lord, seeking to walk in a way that adorns the gospel of Christ before our family, friends, and neighbors (Prov. 22:6; Eph. 6:4; 1 Pet. 3:1).
- We will live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in this present age, as we wait for the blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ. (Gal. 5:22-24; Titus 2:12; 1 Pet. 1:14)
- We will not neglect to gather together, but will praise God, progress in faith and proclaim the truth through the support and treasuring of the biblical preaching of the whole counsel of God, the faithful observance of baptism and the Lord’s Supper, and the loving exercise of church discipline. (Heb. 10:25; 2 Tim. 4:2; Acts 2:38; 1 Cor. 11:26; Matt 18:17; 1 Cor. 5:13).
- We will steward our resources wisely, contributing cheerfully, generously and sacrificially to the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor, and the advancement of the gospel both to our neighbors and the nations. (Matt. 28:19; Luke 12:33; 2 Cor. 9:7). We encourage the tithe as a benchmark from which we begin grace giving (Luke 6:38, 1 Cor. 16:1-2; 2 Cor. 8-9).
- We will serve one another, using the gifts God has granted to us through the Holy Spirit that this fellowship would be built up in Christ (1 Cor. 12; Eph 4:7-16).
- We will, when we move from this place, unite as soon as possible with some other church where we can carry out the principles of God’s Word.

In all these things, we rely on our God who has made a new and everlasting covenant with us, saying, “They shall be my people, and I will be their God. I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me forever, for their own good and the good of their children after them. . . . I will not turn away from doing good to them. And I will put the fear of me in their hearts, that they may not turn from me. I will rejoice in doing them good . . . with all my heart and all my soul.” (Jer. 32:38-41) In and because of Jesus we pray, Amen.

I will be bound by this church’s covenant, constitution, and statement of faith (Baptist Faith and Message, 2000) in all matters pertaining to church membership and church discipline.
