What to Bring

"I wish someone would have told me to bring: Bedding, towels, older clothes (it's camp), old shoes for creek stomping, gym shoes, laundry detergent, swimming gear for the lake, lawn chairs, hard-soled shoes and long pants for riding horses, long sleeves for paintball, warm clothes for cool evenings, Bible, paper, pencil, camera, musical instrument, or song to share."

Ministry Opportunities

Yes, our family would be willing to share a song, skit or Bible recitation for a chapel service.

One of the benefits of camp is gaining wisdom from other's life experiences. For what area of family life has God given you a vision?

Directions from Lansing

Follow the river road, along the railroad tracks, to the south end of town. Turn Right on X42. The intersection is across from a marina on your left. There is a sign for Village Creek at the corner on your right, but be careful to take the second right and not turn too early onto the road just before it. After 3 miles you will turn right onto Village Creek Drive. There is a sign on your right at this turn as well as a brick house. Follow the gravel for 3 miles, and then turn left on Drake road at the sign for the camp. As soon as you cross the bridge you will be on camp property.

Directions from Waukon

Hwy. 9 will intersect with Main St. at the town's only stoplight. Turn east (this is called E. Main or A52) and proceed 9 miles to the town of Elon (there are 4 houses and the speed limit is 45 mph). Turn left (north) on Drake Rd. (gravel) and follow it for 3 miles down to the camp.

NOTE: If you are using a GPS, the camp address may not register. Try entering "Lyndale, IA" as your destination.

Host Families

Bontrager Family

Marlin and Becky Bontrager and their 10 children reside on a dairy/grain/hog farm in Kalona, IA. The whole family loves working together as a team both on the farm and in their travels with their family ministry. Their purpose in family life and ministry is summed up in Deut. 6:4-9 (the Shema creed). They seek to be led by the Lord and His Word into whatever areas of service He calls them. The Bontragers love living, learning, and growing closer to the Lord and each other. The Lord has given them a passion for families that are sold out for Him. Sharing the message of hope and salvation through Jesus Christ is their deepest desire.

Wissmann Family

Loren and Gloria Wissmann, along with their children, hail from Seward, NE, but have spent much of the past few years traveling in family music and teaching ministry. Since their family's beginnings, they have sought the Lord specifically in the area of deepening their Christian walk and the principles of passing down a godly heritage to the next generation. Whether starting an industrial business, teaching home Bible studies, or ministering through music, their goal is to utilize God's design for the family unit. Working together as a team, the Wissmann's share both the labor and joys of serving the Lord and investing in eternity (II Cor. 4:18).
